

BVD TYPE 2

BVD type 2 is a common cattle viral disease in North America, where it accounts for around 50% of infections. Although it is currently less prevalent in the EU (<10% of infections), recent outbreaks suggest that BVD type 2 is an emerging viral threat in the region.

REFERENCES

1. EU Thematic network on control of bovine viral diarrhoea virus (BVDV). BVDV Control QLRT – 2001-01573 Position paper.